

Dear Adult Teacher:

How can I tell if the members of my Sunday School class are maturing in their faith? That's a question many Adult Sunday School teachers ask, and for good reason. They want to know if what they are doing is making a difference in the lives of their people. I know I want to know.

I'm Alan Raughton, Lead Adult Ministry Specialist at LifeWay. I teach an Adult Bible study class in my church, and I want to know if my teaching is being effective in the lives of my members. The bottom line, I think, is that we want our adults to be transformed into Christlikeness so they think and act like Christ.

So, how does a teacher teach to meet the needs of all learners in a class—and move them forward in their spiritual development? Our members today are multi-task driven, visually conditioned, and define “learning” by the experience and not necessarily by the content. Teaching adults today can be challenging!

I want to personally invite you to an event that helps you learn how to overcome this challenge and teach with life-changing impact! TRANSFORM! is coming to Tempe, AZ on Saturday, March 24, 2012 at CrossPointe Church. The conference is 8:30 am to 2:30 pm, with lunch included.

I'll be leading the conference for Adult Teachers who teach 35-60 year olds. If you want to do more than just lecture and ask discussion questions, this conference is for you! Through interactive sessions you'll participate in a variety of teaching and learning methods and will learn how to use these methods with your Sunday School class!

You'll learn simple steps to studying the Scripture and how to develop a customized teaching plan to use each week. You'll discover principles to unleash your effectiveness as a communicator of Biblical truth and how to make a difference in the lives of your members. In addition, we'll cover the type of class organization and structure that is needed to make this happen. Your Sunday School classroom will become a dynamic experience of discovery that people will not want to miss! But more than that, a Bible study experience that produces desirable changes in the lives of your members!

Plan now to attend TRANSFORM! on Saturday, March 24! Learn how to teach with life-changing impact! Learn how to make a difference in the lives of your class members! Prepare yourself to teach in such a way to help your people move spiritually from where they are to where God wants them to be!

I'll see you at CrossPointe Church on Saturday, March 24! May God continue to bless you for all you do for the Kingdom!
